RETIRED JAGUAR JERSEYS

Only three uniform numbers have been retired since the University of South Alabama began play in basketball in 1968-69, and the honorees in all three cases went on to play in the National Basketball Association.

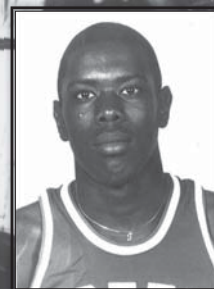

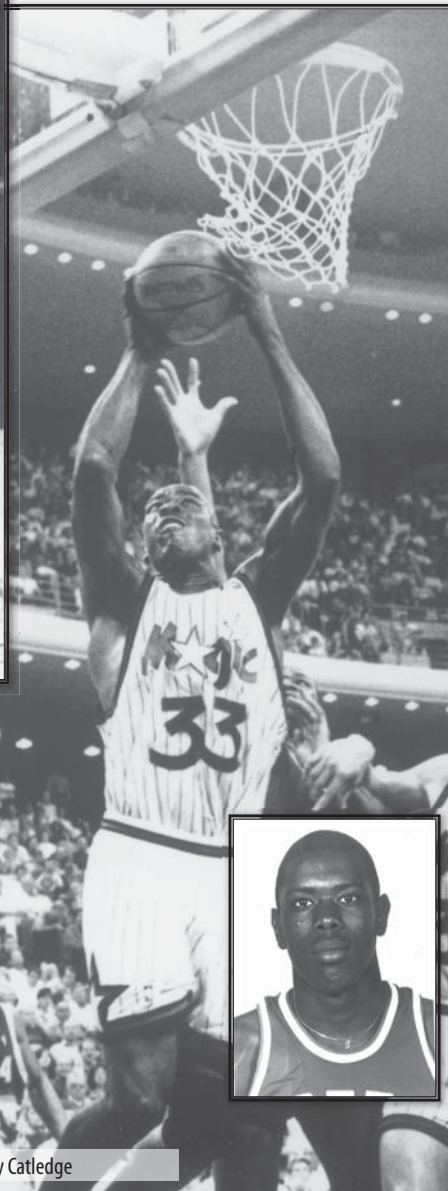

ED RAINS, who appeared in #15 as a Jaguar from 1978-81, had his number retired by the South Alabama Athletic Department in a ceremony midway through the 1982-83 season. Rains concluded his career as South Alabama's all-time leading scorer (1,801 points) and second-leading rebounder (720). A second-round draft choice of the San Antonio Spurs, Rains was the first Jaguar to appear in an NBA game.

RORY WHITE, who appeared in #44 as a Jaguar from 1978-82, had his number retired by the South Alabama Athletic Department in a ceremony in the summer of 1983. White concluded his career as South Alabama's all-time leading rebounder (737) and second all-time leading scorer (1,726 points). A fourth-round draft choice of the Phoenix Suns, White was the second Jaguar to appear in an NBA game.

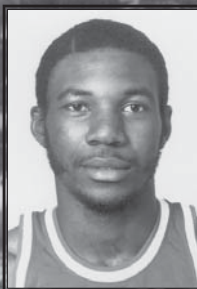

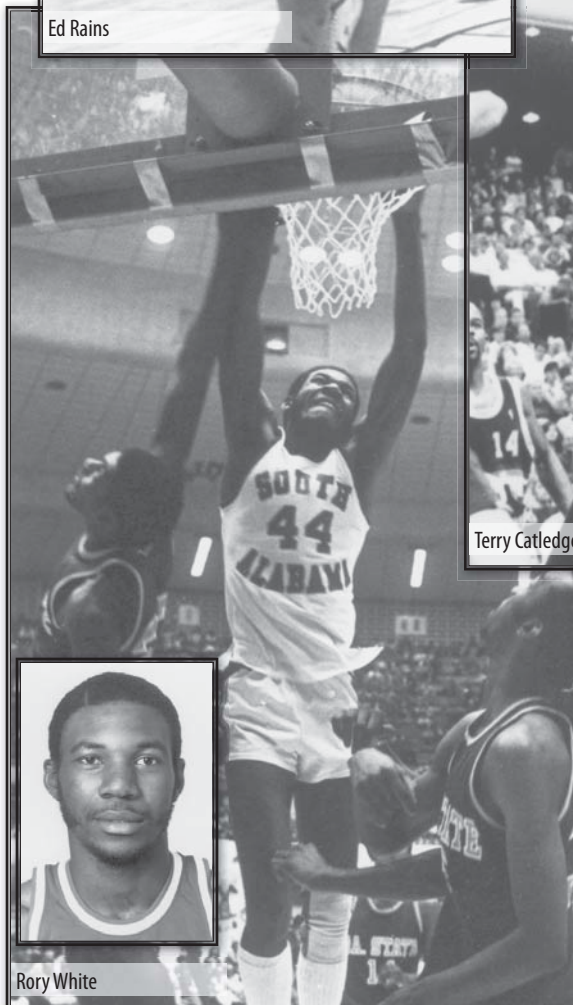

The most recent Jaguar jersey retired was that of TERRY CATLEDGE, who appeared in #23 from 1982-85 and had his number retired at USA's Basketball Banquet in March 1985. Catledge concluded his South Alabama career by passing both Rains in scoring (1,866) and White in rebounding (932) to rank as the Jaguars' best on the all-time lists. Catledge was a first-round selection by the Philadelphia 76ers (21st choice overall).

THE ORIGINAL JAGUARS

Although South Alabama began its varsity basketball program with the 1968-69 season, the Jaguars fielded a team comprised entirely of freshmen during the 1967-68 season. These original Jaguars played to a 10-15 record under coach Rex Frederick, primarily against more veteran competition.

The young Jaguars fashioned a 6-7 record at home that season and were 4-8 on the road. Against freshmen competition, USA posted a 4-4 mark and managed a 6-11 record against older clubs. Included in the victories were wins against freshmen teams at Auburn and Southern Mississippi.

Listed below are the members of South Alabama's inaugural 1967-68 freshmen team: Ferrel Anders, Falkville, Ala.; Ewell Brookins, Atlanta, Ga.; Charles Harper, Pine Mountain, Ga.; Keith Hill, Mayfield, Ky.; Terry McIntosh, Tipton, Ind.; Roger Webb, Birmingham, Ala.; Russell Thompson, Birmingham, Ala.; Skip Moudry, Birmingham, Ala.; Kenny Dunaway, Birmingham, Ala.; Ben Harris, Mobile, Ala.; David Mechler, Mobile, Ala.; Head Coach: Rex Frederick; Assistant Coach, Jimmy Taylor.

SUN BELT REGULAR SEASON CHAMPION
NCAA TOURNAMENT

South Alabama earned its first-ever postseason appearance in 1979, after the Jaguars won the Sun Belt's regular-season title with the only unblemished record in league history at 10-0. They were upset in the semifinals of the Sun Belt Tournament by Jacksonville but received an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Louisville, led by Darrell Griffith, knocked off the Jaguars, 69-66, at the Midwest Regional at Dallas, Texas.

1979-80
SUN BELT REGULAR SEASON CHAMPION
NCAA TOURNAMENT

The Jaguars claimed their second consecutive Sun Belt regular-season title and, also for the second straight season, were upset in the semifinals of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament.

South Alabama returned to the NCAA Tournament, though, losing to Alcorn State, 70-62, in the first round at the Midwest Regional at Denton, Texas.

1980-81
SUN BELT REGULAR SEASON CHAMPION
NATIONAL INVITATION TOURNAMENT

For the third year in a row, South Alabama claimed at least a share of the Sun Belt Conference regular-season crown.

An NIT bid awaited the Jaguars and they took advantage of it, defeating Texas-Arlington, 74-71, and Georgia, 73-72, before falling, 69-68, at Tulsa.

The club won a school-record 25 games against just six losses. The Jaguars were ranked in the Top 20 eight weeks, peaking at No. 10 on the heels of a 14-game winning streak.

1983-84
NATIONAL INVITATION TOURNAMENT

South Alabama earned its second NIT appearance after tying for second place in the Sun Belt race.

The Jaguars defeated Florida, 88-87, at Biloxi, Miss., in the first round before ending the season with a 68-66 loss to Virginia Tech at Greensboro, N.C.

In his second season, coach Ronnie Arrow led South Alabama to its first postseason tournament in five years.

The Jaguars picked up the Sun Belt regular-season title, edging UNC Charlotte by a game with an 11-3 mark, then outscored its league tournament opponents 278-208 in three games to earn their first tournament title.

South Alabama pulled an astounding 19-point come-from-behind 86-84 win over Southeastern Conference champion Alabama in the NCAA Tournament at Atlanta. The Jaguars fell to eventual national champion Michigan in the second round, 91-82.

Picked by most prognosticators to finish in the middle of the Sun Belt pack, South Alabama surprised everyone by racing to its fourth Sun Belt regular-season title and its second in three years.

The Jaguars featured one of college basketball's most balanced attacks on their way to a 22-9 overall record and 11-3 league mark.

South Alabama and Mobile hosted their first Sun Belt Tournament but ended all hospitality at tipoff time. The Jaguars defeated Jacksonville, Virginia Commonwealth and Old Dominion in what was considered to be the Sun Belt Conference's most successful postseason affair to date.

After leading Utah at halftime in the first round of the West Regional at Tucson, the Jaguars fell to the Utes, 82-72.

After being picked eighth in the Sun Belt Conference Coaches Preseason Poll, head coach Bill Musselman and the Jaguars began looking for a little respect. USA went to work and became co-champions of the regular season, sharing the title with New Orleans. It was the first time the Jags had won the Sun Belt regular season title since 1991.

South Alabama then won the Sun Belt Tournament Championship in Little Rock, Ark., for only the third time ever while Rusty Yoder was named the Tournament MVP. Yoder was only the second Jag to receive the honor.

South Alabama drew the Arizona Wildcats in the first round Southeast Regional to be played at The Pyramid in Memphis. Before a nationally-televised CBS audience on March 13, the Jags led the eventual national champions by 10, 53-43 with 7:35 to play, before falling 65-57.

It would be the second time the Jags had been knocked out of NCAA Tournament play by the eventual national champion. The first came in 1989 to Michigan.

For the second year in a row, the South Alabama Jaguars followed the Sun Belt Conference regular season championship with the tournament title. It was the first time a Sun Belt team had repeated as tournament champions since UAB had accomplished the feat three years in a row from 1982-84.

Eight days after preseason practice began, Bob Weltlich was named the "interim" head coach, but the team didn't miss a beat, despite numerous injuries during the year. Weltlich guided the senior-laden team to a 21-7 overall record, earning a four-year contract beginning in the 1998-99 season.

South Alabama defeated USL in Lafayette's Cajundome in spectacular style. Senior guard Jerome Coaxum blocked a three-point shot with seconds remaining to give the Jaguars a 62-59 win but it was Toby Madison who was named Most Valuable Player after hitting for 18 points including 4-8 on three-point attempts.

Upon returning to campus the following day, students had filled every tree with rolls of paper celebrating the championship repeat as the theme "Twice is Nice" was seen and heard everywhere. A week later in the NCAA West Regional game in Sacramento, the Jaguars fell to Big 10 opponent Illinois, 64-51.

2000-01*SUN BELT WEST DIVISION CHAMPION
NATIONAL INVITATION TOURNAMENT

USA posted its second consecutive 20-win season and captured a share of the Sun Belt Conference championship for the fourth time in five years. The Jaguars made their second consecutive trip to the Sun Belt Tournament championship game and their third-ever appearance in the postseason NIT.

USA dropped an overtime decision at Toledo and ended the season 22-11. Four seniors - Virgil Stanesco, Ravonte Dantzler, Brett Gravitt and Ericson Beck - finished their careers with two conference titles and back-to-back 20-win seasons.

2005-06SUN BELT WEST DIVISION CHAMPION
SUN BELT TOURNAMENT CHAMPION
NCAA TOURNAMENT

A Sun Belt Conference West Division title, Sun Belt Conference Tournament Championship and a trip the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 highlighted the 2005-06 season for the South Alabama men's basketball program. USA posted its second-best record in school history, going 24-7 overall and 12-3 in conference play.

In addition, USA had the nation's best turnaround from 2004-05 to 2005-06 and head coach John Pelphrey earned Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year honors.

In the conference tournament, the Jags posted a 78-53 win over Arkansas-Little Rock, followed by a 75-65 win over Denver to reach the championship. The title game was not close, as USA earned the Sun Belt's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament with a 95-70 demolition of Western Kentucky.

A first-round matchup with Florida in Jacksonville created an additional spotlight in the NCAA Tournament. Pelphrey was matched against his mentor in Billy Donovan as they coached together at Marshall and Florida. The Jags were outmatched on the court, though, losing to the Gators 76-50.

The decision marked the third time in seven NCAA appearances that the team eliminating South Alabama went on to win the national championship.

2006-07SUN BELT EAST DIVISION CHAMPION
NATIONAL INVITATION TOURNAMENT

With the expansion of the Sun Belt Conference to 13 teams, South Alabama moved from the West Division to the East, but the result was the same -- a second consecutive division crown. The Jags finished the season with a 20-12 record, including 13-5 in league play.

While the overall campaign resulted in a fourth trip to the National Invitation Tournament, the midseason hopes were for much more. The Jags were well on their way to the title in mid-February when they won their 13th straight game at Houston on Valentine's Day, but it wound up being the final victory of the season. The Jags lost three in a row to end the regular season, then were upset by No. 8-seed Middle Tennessee, 63-60 in overtime, in the Sun Belt Conference quarterfinals.

The regular-season title resulted in an automatic bid to the NIT, where USA was seeded seventh and traveled to Syracuse for the first round. The Jags hung tough, but eventually saw their season end at the hands of the Orange, 79-73.

2007-08SUN BELT EAST DIVISION CHAMPION
NCAA TOURNAMENT

The Jaguars won their first nine Sun Belt Conference contests en route to claiming the program's third straight division title with a 16-2 mark and the top seed at the league tournament in Mobile. And, despite being eliminated in the semifinals, USA would earn the conference's first at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament since 1994 while posting a school-record 26 victories.

In addition to defeating Mississippi State in the Coors Classic behind 39 points from Demetric Bennett, the Jags earned wins over fellow NCAA Tournament participants San Diego and Western Kentucky (twice), while two of their five regular-season losses came on the road against Southeastern Conference schools in tight contests. Mississippi handed USA its first defeat of the season, 81-78, in Oxford, while Vanderbilt — which would go on to be seeded fourth in the NCAA Tournament — needed double-overtime to beat the Jaguars 91-88 in Nashville.

In fact, in head coach Ronnie Arrow's first year back leading the program, USA would go 17-1 at the Mitchell Center to set a school standard for wins in the nine-year-old building while winning 13 straight games from Dec. 2-Jan. 27, which was one shy of matching the school record. Although seeded just seventh in the region at the NCAA Tournament, Butler was ranked as high as 10th in the national polls entering the event — the Bulldogs would connect on 15-of-28 from beyond the three-point arc in ending one of the most successful seasons in Jaguar history.
